2. PRESIDENT'S REPORT P Keegan.

3. CHAIRMANS REPORT H Byrne

4. The Chairman felt there was not too many problems in 2024. The race program was manly kept with as passed at 2023 for 5 years. He felt he was sorry to see PK ,WB, +JR. step down after years of service on the ISRF committee. He felt the fed needed people to step up to take roles in the fed for the fed to move forward.

5. SECRETARY'S REPORT M Roche

The sec tanked all the members and club sects for all their help over the years. With the reduction of members every year and getting harder to get people to get involved in the running of clubs things will change with in the ISRF over the next 5 years. He said this year will be his last year as secretary and he hoped to show the assistant sect what is involved in the role as ISRF secretary. He said PK,WB,JR will be hard to replace.

6. TREASURER'S REPORT W Butler

The treasurer pointed out the balance sheet was in front of them. He said he has to retire and he enjoyed working with all the members over the years and thanked every one for all their help in doing his role as Treasurer .

7. TRANSPORT MANAGER'S REPORT J Roberts , M Roche.

MR SAID he will miss JR and the role of transporter manger which is a very important role in the ISRF on a weekly bases during the racing season.

8. LIBERATOR'S REPORT H Byrne

HB felt the racing we got was very good except one or two races he also felt the race program is the best program for the members of the ISRF.
